Newark, N. J.

Dear Mrs. Manley:

Pardon my delay in writing, but I want to advise you that there was an argument Sunday about the distribution of the money, the clubs claiming that you were not entitled to any of it, and I held back a part of each club's share, until the matter is finally settled, which I assume will be in Chicago, when we are all together.

Sorry, but there was nothing else for me to do.

I heard that Hartford and Trenton were very good.

Best wishes and regards.

Sincerely,

Ed. Gottlieb
